Tickets Now on Sale for Dune: Part Three and Avengers: Doomsday at Mountain View Cinema
Experience Both Blockbusters Exclusively in AXV

MOUNTAIN VIEW, Calif. — Oct. 29, 2026 — The newly renovated Mountain View Cinema today announced that tickets are now on sale for two of the most anticipated motion pictures of the season: Dune: Part Three and Avengers: Doomsday. Guests can secure their seats now and experience both epic releases exclusively in the theater's premium AXV auditoriums.

Designed to deliver the ultimate moviegoing experience, AXV combines a wall-to-wall giant screen, crystal-clear laser projection, and immersive multidimensional sound that places audiences inside the action. From the sweeping deserts of Arrakis to the universe-spanning spectacle of the Marvel Cinematic Universe, AXV was built for movies of this scale.

"These are the kinds of films audiences wait years to experience," said Nancy Crane, Vice President of Operations. "With AXV, every frame is larger, brighter, and more immersive. We are excited to bring moviegoers the definitive way to see Dune: Part Three and Avengers: Doomsday."

Moviegoers are encouraged to purchase tickets early, as demand is expected to be exceptionally strong for both releases. Advance tickets are available now at Mountain View Cinema, online and through the theater's mobile ticketing platforms. Tickets for additional films will become available for advance purchase in the coming days.
